My name is Chou Tao Sung (also Chou Tao Lin 邱陶心) age 25, native of Shaochow, single, a school teacher employed and residing at the Woo Tung (114) Commercial & Business School, 32/117 Pingliang Tshung, Pingliang Road off Yangtsepoo Road.

I came to Shanghai in July, 1933 to seek employment, and took up residence in Boppe Terrace, Rue Dubail, French Concession. Four months later, I obtained a post as editor in the Chung Hsueh Sung (中孚生) Bookstore, 60 Hoong Yuen Fong (125) off Ward Road, and resided on the premises. In May 1934 I was transferred to a branch store at No. 7 Yung Chih Li (永吉里) off Rue Chapais, French Concession, again residing on the premises. A month later I obtained my present post as teacher at the Woo Tung Commercial & Business School, and have resided in the school ever since.

I came to Shanghai direct from Canton by the ss. Kung Ping of the China Merchants Steam Navigation Company. On arriving here I had $100 in my possession given to me by my father in Canton. I had not previously done any work, having studied in the Feng Yung (冯庸) University, Peiping, for ~~two years~~ the two years ending May 1, 1933, following a preparatory course of study at the Central University (中央) of Nanking and the Shih Mei (世美) Middle School, Amoy.

I obtained my first post in Shanghai through the recommendation of a student named Vung Soo Meng (文苏蒙)
